CHURCH WRECKED

Anarchists at Work in Paris.

Mob Destroys the Church of St. Joseph.

The Police Have Their Hands Full--380 Injured.

By Associated Press to the Journal.

PARIS, Aug. 21.—Papers in this city commenting on the anarchist riots yesterday, in which a large number of people were injured, are unanimous in pronouncing the situation of a most serious character. The conservative and nationalist organs have accused the government of provoking yesterday's bloodshed by unjustifiable arrests. The radical Revisionist and Republican papers insist on the necessity of more firmness on the part of the ministry and declare that the ministers must defend the republic against the secret machinations and attempts at uprising. The radical press protests against the disorders and hopes the police will prevent the recurrence of them.

PARIS, Aug. 21.—From today all churches will be guarded by pickets, and Republican guards and detachments of infantry and cavalry will be held in readiness for eventualities. The damage done by rioters to the church of St. Joseph yesterday is estimated at 8,000 francs.

The church is surrounded by a cordon of police and no one is allowed to approach the building. It is pointed out that the rioting persons are from 15 to 20 years of age.

The Rue de Chamberi is occupied by the Seventy-Fourth and 131st infantry with fixed bayonets. All approaches are guarded and it is impossible to traverse the crowds which are everywhere increasing.

Sunday Troubles

PARIS, Aug. 21.—Paris was Sunday the scene of most serious disturbances, recalling some aspects of the commune. Groups of anarchists and socialists gathered about 3 o'clock in the afternoon in the Place de la Republique. The police had taken precautions, and there seemed to be no danger of disorders. Sebastian Faure and Faberot, well-known revolutionary anarchists, were the ring-leaders. Faure, standing on the pedestals of the statue which rises in the center of the Place de la Republique addressed the crowd.

Among other things he said that the anarchists should be masters of the streets. The police then interfered and dislodged Faure and Faberot, making three arrests. The crowd at this point dispersed, but a column of demonstrators, headed by Faure and Henri d'Horr, made for the Place de la Nation. The police broke through the column and a struggle for the mastery followed. Shots were fired, and M. Goullier, commissary of police, was twice stabbed with a knife.

This threw the police into momentary confusion. The mob reassembled, and ran toward the Place de la Nation. The police, reinforced by a squad that had been held in reserve, made another attempt to stem the current, and fresh fierce fighting occurred, three constables being wounded. Faure and d'Horr jumped into a passing street-car that was going to the Place de la Republique, and the car driver, on arriving there, gave a signal to the police, who immediately arrested them both, together with two other anarchists, Joseph Ferrier and Jean Ferrin. All were conveyed to the Chateau d'Erau barracks. Only d'Horr was found in possession of firearms.

In the meantime the anarchists retraced their course to the Place de la Republique, smashing the windows of religious edifices on the way. Suddenly, either at the word of command or in obedience to impulse, the column made a loop and curved toward the church of St. Ambrose, where the rioters smashed the windows. Proceeding thence toward the Faubourg du Temple, at the corner of Rue Darbri and the Rue St. Mauri-Popincourt, they formed up into a compact body. Hatchets were suddenly produced, with long knives stolen from the counters of shops, and a concentrated rush was made upon the church of St. Joseph.

The aged sacristan, seeing the mob, hastily closed the outer gates, but those were soon forced with hatchets and bars of iron. The massive oaken doors were then attacked. The wild horde burst into the church, which instantly became a scene of pillage and sacrilege.

Altars and statues were hurled to the floor and smashed; pictures were rent, candlesticks, ornaments and hosts from high altars were thrown down and trampled under foot. The crucifix above was made the target for missiles, and the figure of the Savior was fractured in several places.

Then, while rancorous voices sang the "Carmagnole," the chairs were carried outside, piled up and set on fire in the center of the square fronting the church. When this stage was reached, the crucifix was pulled down and thrown into the flames. Suddenly the cry was raised that the statue of the Virgin had been forgotten, and the crowd returned and tore this down also.

An attempt was made to fire the choir of St. Joseph's with petroleum, and the firemen were called in to quench the flames. Several parishioners were severely mauled in their efforts to defend the church from sacrilege. The church is situated in the poorest quarters of the city. No disorders of any kind occurred in the fashionable district.

At length the officers began to gain the mastery. A score of anarchists took refuge in an adjacent house. Others entrenched themselves in the belfry, and fiercely defended themselves by showering missiles on the Republican guards, but finally these were dislodged. Twenty anarchists were arrested, taken to the police station, searched and found to be carrying revolvers, loaded sticks and knives.

When the police entered the church the anarchists had set fire to the pulpit. The interior of the edifice was a complete wreck. Several valuable old pictures, that can never be replaced, were ruined.

Number Injured, 380.

PARIS, Aug. 24. 4. a. m.—The prefecture of police gives the following statistics of yesterday's riots: Three hundred and eighty persons were injured; 300 were taken to the hospitals; 59 police agents were wounded, besides Commissioners Coste and Dolomieu. One hundred and fifty persons were arrested, of whom 80 are detained in custody.

PARIS, Aug. 21, 2 a. m.—Besides St. Joseph's church, two cafes were wrecked. At a late hour 20,000 people were in the Boulevard de Magenta, which runs past the end of the Rue de Chamberi.

They are kept constantly moving by the Republican guards, who made a remarkable display of force. Large bodies of police were constantly operating in and around the Rue de Chamberi, and a large force is in readiness at the nearest barracks.

In the collisions between the anarchists and Guerinities, the scuffling was serious, and three companies of the Republican guards charged the contestants, several persons being injured.

Fifty or sixty policemen were seen striking wildly at every person within reach on the Boulevard de Magenta. A lad was knocked down, and while trying to rise a policeman literally jumped over him.

PARIS, Aug. 21.—In consequence of yesterday's events judicial proceedings have been instituted against Sebastian Faure and four others, for rebellion, acts of violence and attempts at murder, and against divers persons, for robbing buildings and burning furniture.

ADMIRAL DEWEY

Talks of Our New Possessions.

The Filipinos Should Govern Themselves.

When That is Accomplished Then Annexation.

By Associated Press to the Journal.
LEHIGH, Aug. 21.—The Cruiser Olympia sailed from this port today.

PARIS, Aug. 21.—United States Charge's Affairs, Henry Vignau has gone to Ville, France to receive Admiral Dewey, who is expected there tomorrow.

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—A dispatch to the World from London gives at some length the London Daily News, reported interview with Admiral Dewey, at Naples. Among other things the admiral said:

"The Filipinos are capable of governing themselves; they have all the qualifications for it. It is only a question of time, but the only way to settle the insurrection and assure prosperity to the archipelago is to concede self-government to its inhabitants.

"That would be a solution of many questions and would satisfy all, especially the Filipinos, who believe themselves worthy of it, and are so.

"I never have been in favor of violence toward the Filipinos. The islands are blockaded by a fleet and a war regime in the interior. This abnormal state of thing should cease.

"I should like to see autonomy first conceded and then annexation might be talked about. According to my view, the concession of self-government ought to be the most just and most logical solution."
